

SENATE BILL 3704

By Haynes

AN ACT to provide for the erection and maintenance of directional signs on Interstate 40 in Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County for Tennessee School For The Blind.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the department of transportation is hereby directed to erect and maintain directional signs at Exit 219 (Stewarts Ferry Pike), both westbound and eastbound, on Interstate 40 in Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County for Tennessee School For The Blind. Such signs shall contain language and symbols sufficient to direct motorists to Tennessee School For The Blind from such exit.

SECTION 2. The erection of such directional signs shall be within the guidelines prescribed by the Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices.

SECTION 3. This act shall become operative only if the federal highway administrator advises the commissioner of transportation in writing that the provisions of this act shall not render Tennessee in violation of federal laws and regulations and subject to penalties prescribed therein.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
